

Priest,

God is love. Jesus Christ showed us the personal nature of God's love for us. Let us bring all our needs of the world to our loving Father.

We pray for the Church and for the unity of all Christians; may we see the joy of our risen Saviour in one another.

Lord, in your mercy.

We pray today for wisdom and dedication to the common good in all elected officials.

Lord, in your mercy.

We pray that God may lead us to an understanding of love, so that we truly hate sin but never hate the sinner.

Lord, in your mercy.

We pray for our own parish community, that we may see the Lord in the sign he has left us, giving us new life in Baptism and nourishing us in the Eucharist.

Lord, in your mercy.

We pray for those who are sick, especially: Coby, Kevin Fox, Brenda Kinghorn, Carol Greaves, Pam Tyler, Helen Burns, Luke Anike, and all those displayed on Our Lady's Altar; may they abide in love.

Lord, in your mercy.

We pray for those who have died recently, especially: Deacon Stephen O'Connor, Jeanne Moody, Paul Camm, Ben, Wayne Maile, Michael Neill, Jimmy Comer and Shaun together with Kath Horsfall, James McCauley, Jeani Jeanette Smith and Maureen Saunders whose birthdays or anniversaries are at this time, may God raise them up to be with him in the joy of heaven.

Lord, in your mercy.

Let us bow our head and pray in silence for our own intentions.

We ask Our Lady to join her prayers to ours, as we pray, Hail Mary...

Priest,

God of love, guided by the Spirit, in faith, in hope and in love, we ask you to answer all our prayers, which we make through your beloved Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.
