Priest,
With hearts united in prayer and hope, let us come before our heavenly Father with all our needs.

We pray for the Church that all in pastoral leadership may show loving concern to those who come for guidance and help.
Lord, in your mercy.

We pray for an end division in our world; that nations may learn the ways of peace by living in mutual trust and harmony.
Lord, in your mercy.

We pray for all who at this time feel isolated, abandoned and separated from their loved ones. We pray also that fractured relationships be healed, that families be reconciled and that those in need be the receivers of Christian charity and good neighbourliness.
Lord, in your mercy.

We pray for our parish family; that it will be a place of welcome, where all will feel the warmth of God's love, and that this love be reflected in all our daily lives.
Lord, in your mercy.

We pray for those who are sick, especially: Pope Leo XIV, Coby, Brenda Kinghorn, Tommy Kirby, Maria Yates, John Cosgrove, Franklin Duffy and all those displayed on Our Lady's Altar, that the Lord may restore them to the fullness of life and health.
Lord, in your mercy.

We pray for those who have died recently, especially: Pat Karney, David Keen, Delia Groarke, Mary Rodgers and Bill Melia together with Joan Coonan, Dominick Sweeney and James Smith whose birthday or anniversary are at this time, that they may enjoy eternal rest in God's heavenly Kingdom.
Lord, in your mercy.

Let us pray in silence for our own intentions.

Let us ask Our Lady in the month of the Rosary, to intercede for us, as we pray, Hail Mary…

Priest,
God of love, renew our hearts, inspire our love, transform our actions so that we be true to your image. We make this prayer through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen.
