

Priest,

God invites us to open our hearts to Him and share our wants and needs.

With gratitude and trust, we turn to Him with our prayers of petition.

We pray for the Church, filled with the Holy Spirit and led by Pope Leo; may she continue to be a beacon of hope by preaching and practising compassion, mercy and forgiveness.

Lord, in your mercy.

We pray for those who govern our country; that they may do so wisely and with a sense of justice.

Lord, in your mercy.

We pray on this day of prayer and action for prisoners and their dependents; that those resident in prison and their families are aware of your presence with them and that your spirit will bring them peace and hope of new life in Jesus Christ.

Lord, in your mercy.

We pray for those who are sick, especially: Coby, Brenda Kinghorn, Tommy Kirby, Maria Yates, John Cosgrove, Chris Dronsfield, Joan Johnson, Marie Connelly, Franklin Duffy and all those displayed on Our Lady's Altar, that they may experience the healing power of Christ in their time of need.

Lord, in your mercy.

We pray for those who have died recently, especially: David Keen and Bill Melia together with Paul Talbot whose birthday or anniversary is at this time, that they may share in the gift and promise of eternal life.

Lord, in your mercy.

Let us pray in silence for our own intentions.

Let us ask Our Lady in the month of the Rosary, to intercede for us, as we pray, Hail Mary...

Priest,

Loving Father, all that is good and holy comes from you. We ask you to make us grateful for the good that will come. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
